

Commissioning of Youth and Adults as Representatives of the Congregation or Presbytery to the Montreat Youth Conference

The minister and those being commissioned should gather at the baptismal font or pool.

ONE: As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. Galatians 3.27-28

ALL: There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free,
there is no longer male and female;
for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. Ephesians 4.1-6

ONE: How very good and pleasant it is when sisters and brothers live together in unity! Psalms 133.1, 3

ALL: It is like the dew of Mount Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion.
For there the LORD ordained the blessing of life forevermore.

The minister continues:

[To you young people, whose vision and hearing are so much sharper than they'll ever be again, I encourage you to watch and listen for the ways God will be calling each of you at Montreat: in worship, in play, in small group discussions and informal conversations, in friendships new and old, and in the natural beauty of God's creation. But remember that God doesn't call you only as an individual but as members of the body of Christ and representatives of this congregation (or presbytery)—and so I urge you to also listen to the voices of your adult leaders, who will be there to guide and support you, offer advice, and keep you safe.

[And to you adult leaders who will accompany the youth to Montreat, I encourage you to take seriously your role as guide and support, as mentor, as protector. But I also encourage you to listen for God's particular call to you: in worship, in play, in small group discussions and informal conversations, in friendships new and old, in the natural beauty of God's creation—and in the voices of these young people.]

To all of you, youth and adults: The grace poured out on you in baptism [or as members of the body of Christ] is all you need to answer your calls as Christians, because it is God's grace. By God's grace we are saved and given the strength to grow in faith and to serve Christ. Today, God has called you to grow in faith, learning, and fellowship by participating in the Montreat Youth Conference. Show that you intend to answer that call by answering these questions:

LEADER: Who is your Lord and Savior?

COMMISSIONEES: Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior.

LEADER: Will you be Christ's faithful disciple, obeying his Word and showing his love?

COMMISSIONEES: I will, with God's help.

LEADER: Do you welcome the responsibility of representing _____ Church [or Presbytery], and will you seek to follow Christ in all that you do and say at Montreat?

COMMISSIONEES: I will, with God's help.

The minister addresses the congregation:

LEADER: Do you, the members of _____ Church [or Presbytery], confirm the call of God to our sisters and brothers to grow in faith, learning, and fellowship by participating in the Montreat Youth Conference?

ALL: We do.

LEADER: Will you support them with your prayers while they're away, welcome them warmly when they return, and pester them enthusiastically for stories about their experience?

ALL: We will!

The minister continues with the Commissioning Prayer:

Faithful God, in baptism you claimed us [or you have claimed us as covenant people]; and by your Holy Spirit you are working in our lives, empowering us to live a life worthy of our calling.
We thank you for leading these young people and their adult mentors to this time and place.
Ground them in your truth and guide them by your Holy Spirit, so that in their participation in the Montreat Youth Conference, they may grow in faith, hope, and love and be faithful disciples of Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Friends, you are commissioned as representatives of the body of Christ in this place to the Montreat Youth Conference. Whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God through him. Amen.
