

Variety Show Covenant

The Variety Show allows participants to share their performing arts gifts. There are limited spaces for the evening. Sign-up will happen at the conference. When sign-ups are closed, acts from various categories will be selected. All members of the act must attend soundcheck in the clothes they will wear on stage. Please see the conference dress code for details. Any change in participants, performance materials, or clothes/costumes will result in disqualification. Sign-up does not ensure inclusion in the show.

I. Brief Description of Act:

II. Back Home Leader Agreement: "I have seen the act and agree that it is G-rated and suitable for presentation to the conference."

(Printed Name, Back Home Church/Group, Signature)

III. Participants Agreement: "I agree to abide by the act requirements stated below."

Name	Church/Group Name	Signature

(if you need more rows, you can use 2 forms or continue onto the back.)

Guidelines:

- Limit of 4 minutes per act.
- Soundcheck attendance is required for participants and their Back Home leader. Wear the same clothes you want to wear in the show.
- Lyrics, scripts, etc. must be printed/shared at or before the sound check.
- Ridiculing people, groups, geographic areas is not permitted.
- Use of food is NOT allowed. Use of messy materials is NOT allowed.
- Show respect for stage, equipment, and staff.
- No tumbling or acrobatics.
- Middle School participants are the focus of this event. Adults may participate in assisting/supportive roles.
- The appropriateness of acts will be determined by co-directors and staff. If an act is deemed inappropriate, effort will be made to explain and give the act a chance for modifications.

(On the reverse, you can share additional information, such as lyrics or scripts.)
