ARTISTS-IN-RESIDENCE

Candy Wheat is the director of faith & art at Trinity Presbyterian Church in Louisville, KY. The center holds classes for over 100 children and adults on the autism scale each week.

Genny Hagler is a resident of Asheville, NC, by way of New Orleans. She has her BA in painting from Davidson College and holds her MAEd from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Jamie Scott is a graduate of VSU with a BFA in art education. Jamie is skilled in various media including drawing, painting, photography, and printmaking. She has been an art educator for 17 years. She was awarded art teacher of the year for the state of Georgia in 2018.

Joan DeBruyn is from Raleigh, NC, and a member of White Memorial Presbyterian Church, where she leads an annual Lenten workshop in pysanky egg writing for adults and children.

Ruth Duckworth lives in Black Mountain. She is currently serving as artist in residence at the Swannanoa Valley Fine Arts League in the Red House in Black Mountain, where she can be found most days playing with silk and wool.

Nat Scott, MFA in pottery and painting, came to St. Simons Presbyterian Church in 2005. As director of congregational life, Nat seeks to foster ministries of care, fellowship, and fun across all ages of the church. He has a particular focus in leading the "try something new" ministry for older adults. In addition to being a professional potter by training, Nat enjoys being out in God's creation biking, kayaking, sailing, hiking, and attending music festivals.

Kay Clegg, Lisa Galloway, and Carol Wilhelmi, our glassy girls, are our resident fused glass team, from Florida, South Carolina, and Black Mountain.

SUPPORT US!

We greatly appreciate your donation to our ministry. With your support we can offer great staff and artists-in-residence all summer long. Please donate to one of the following funds: Annie Righton Hodgkin Restricted Fund, Sally Jones Endowment Fund, or the Raspberry Fund. One hundred percent of your donations support this ministry.
