Clee Lee is a fabric artist and quilter who has made over 200 quilts. A long-time Montreater, she has served as artist-in-residence for the Worship and Music Conference and helped with the liturgical art installations for Montreat summer worship. After teaching children with special needs for 38 years, Clee now works with university students, helping prepare student teachers for careers in education.

Edna Bacon is a potter, artist, and therapist in Atlanta, GA, and longtime member of Central Presbyterian Church. She is famous in Montreat for introducing our beloved denim and potworks green glazes!

Genny Hagler is a resident of Asheville, NC, by way of New Orleans, has her BA in painting from Davidson College, and holds her MAEd from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Joshua Grimes is a ceramics artist, from South Mills, NC. His ceramic arts draw inspiration from ancient cultures and nature. The textures of stones and trees are a recurring theme found throughout much of his artwork.

Julia Mitchell has worked for Southern Living magazine for 15 years and helped develop recipes as well as doing on-stage cooking demonstrations. She has worked with chefs developing shows and magazines, and has taught cooking classes for all ages. She loves to pass on easy traditional techniques so everyone falls in love with food and cooking. Julia is originally from the southern United States and her food style reflects the heritage cooking of foothills cuisine and other Southeastern regional cooking.

Meredith Greene has been wet felting/nuno felting for about four years and sells the scarves she makes at a local women's boutique in Black Mountain.

Steve Bacon is a retired pastor and administrator, and has dabbled in crafts and woodwork since high school. He and Edna, a potter, live in Atlanta. Their three sons live with their families in Charlotte.
