ARTISTS-IN-RESIDENCE

Clee Lee is a fabric artist and quilter who has made over 200 quilts. A long-time Montreater, she has served as artist-in-residence for the Worship and Music Conference and helped with the liturgical art installations for Montreat summer worship. After teaching children with special needs for 38 years, Clee now works with university students, helping prepare student teachers for careers in education.

Genny Hagler is a resident of Asheville, NC, by way of New Orleans, has her BA in painting from Davidson College, and holds her MAEd from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Gettys Nelson is a long time Montreater, army wife, mother of three high energy clubbies, and is currently a 4th grade math and science teacher at Hillsborough Academy of Math and Science in Tampa, FL.

The Rev. Dr. Martha Jane Petersen is a retired minister and artist. She is known for her beautiful quilts hanging in the lobby of Assembly Inn. Her art quilts are exhibited all over the country, and she is the author of Imaging My Inner Fire: Finding My Path Through Creating Art.

Meredith Greene has been wet felting/nuno felting for almost four years and sells the scarves she makes at a local women's boutique in Black Mountain.

Patricia Brown is a practicing studio artist and a former art department faculty and gallery director at Delta State University in Cleveland, MS, teaching art history and fiber media courses from weaving to papermaking to dyeing.

Ruth Duckworth lives in Black Mountain. She is currently serving as artist-in-residence at the Swannanoa Valley Fine Arts League in the Red House in Black Mountain where she can be found most days playing with silk and wool.

Kay Clegg, Lisa Galloway, and Carol Wilhelmi, our "Glassy Girls," are our resident fused glass team, from Florida, South Carolina, and Black Mountain.
